COMET

Annual Report Art Competition

Kia ora!

Te Hononga Akoranga COMET invites your intermediate/secondary school to design the cover of our 2022 Annual Report.

All students aged from 11 years to 18 years of age are encouraged to design an artwork that reflects our vision 'tino rangatiratanga for everyone, through lifelong learning'. The winning entry will best reflect this in their artwork.

Artists are invited to submit their artwork for the 2022 Te Hononga Akoranga COMET Annual Report cover and the winning artwork will be used to create the front and back cover of the report which is distributed to our important stakeholders.

The winner will receive a $100.00 gift card for their entry and their school art department will receive a $200.00 gift card to purchase artwork supplies. The artist will also receive a credit and a photo in the front inside cover of the Annual Report.

All entries must be accompanied by a signed and completed Entry Form including design story by 5 pm on 29 July 2022. Entry limit of one entry per artist and no late entries will be considered.

Background: Te Hononga Akoranga COMET

We address the areas of greatest educational needs from early childhood to life-long learning in your community. We identify significant hurdles and work with the education sector and others to change the system to create more equitable learning pathways for all.

Our mission is driving systems change to make education and skills more effective and equitable.

Our vision is tino rangatiratanga for everyone, through lifelong learning.
