

WHAT'S THE SMART QUESTION TO ASK?

Learning how to ask a smart question is an important workplace skill. Not only does it show that you are engaged, but it can also help get you the information you need to do your job better.

This activity gives you the opportunity to practice working out how to ask smart questions.

For each of the following pictures, imagine that you are a police officer who has just arrived on the scene. You need to work out four (4) questions to ask that will help you decide what exactly happened and why.

DISCLAIMER

The following pages contain scenes that some people may find distressing and/or triggering.
View with caution.

Scene 1

Your Questions

- 1) _____
- 2) _____
- 3) _____
- 4) _____

What do you think happened? _____

Scene 2

Your Questions

- 1) _____
- 2) _____
- 3) _____
- 4) _____

What do you think happened? _____

Scene 3

Your Questions

- 1) _____
- 2) _____
- 3) _____
- 4) _____

What do you think happened? _____

Scene 4

Your Questions

- 1) _____
- 2) _____
- 3) _____
- 4) _____

What do you think happened? _____

Scene 5

Your Questions

- 1) _____
- 2) _____
- 3) _____
- 4) _____

What do you think happened? _____

Scene 6

Your Questions

- 1) _____
- 2) _____
- 3) _____
- 4) _____

What do you think happened? _____
